E-Thesis Deposit Agreement

Deposit Information

This E-Thesis deposit agreement records the open access option chosen for sharing the work electronically in Swansea University's institutional repository, Cronfa.

An electronic version of the thesis will not be made publicly available online without the permission of the author. A preservation copy of the thesis will be kept in the Research Information System (RIS).

There are circumstances where it is not possible to give permission for online access, or where it may be necessary to restrict access for a limited period; for example to respect conditions imposed by sponsors or for reasons of commercial confidentiality. Authors who wish to restrict access to their thesis must understand that the institution is subject to the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) and the Environmental Regulations 2004 (EIR), which permit a right of access to all information held by Swansea University, including theses, unless an exemption applies.

Please return the completed deposit agreement together with a PDF copy of the thesis to your Faculty/Departmental Administrator.

Author's declaration:

i. I declare that I am the author of the work and I confirm that I will submit the final version of my thesis as an electronic copy. This will be archived as a record of the work in the Research Information System (RIS);

ii. I understand that the electronic version will be deposited by the repository administrator in Cronfa, the Swansea University institutional repository. The bibliographic metadata and abstract will be made immediately available. The full-text version of the thesis will be published online unless access is formally restricted;

iii. I understand that I may submit a second redacted version of the thesis to be made available in Cronfa, the institutional repository if the thesis contains third-party copyright content, sensitive or confidential material I wish to remove. I understand that the author is responsible for any errors or omissions in the content of the thesis;

iv. I declare that the thesis is the result of my own investigations, except where otherwise stated and that other sources are acknowledged by footnotes giving explicit references and that a bibliography is appended. I have taken reasonable care to ensure that the work is original and does not, to the best of my knowledge, break any UK law or infringe any third party's copyright or other Intellectual Property Right;

v. I understand that I retain the right to publish the work in its present version or future versions elsewhere. The rights granted to the Swansea University repository are non-exclusive and royalty free;

vi. I may choose to protect the thesis in Cronfa with a pre-prepared Creative Commons licence added to the metadata record and the document. I authorise the repository administrator to add the licence I may select on this form.

Note: Creative Commons (CCL) are pre-prepared licences that are intended to help copyright holders distribute their work; they define how others can use it without the need to grant permission each time someone wants to use it. Information about choosing one of the six pre-prepared CC licences is available on the License Chooser Tool;

vii.   I understand that Swansea University reserves the right to restrict or withdraw access to the electronic version of my work, should there be any cause for Swansea University to do so;

viii.   I agree that Swansea University may electronically store, copy or translate the work to any approved medium or format for the purpose of access and future preservation. Swansea University is not under any obligation to reproduce or display the work in the same format or resolution in which it was originally deposited. In addition, I agree that Swansea University may retain a copy for use within the institution;

ix.   I understand that the bibliographic metadata and abstract will be available in public access catalogues and searchable via standard web search engines. Swansea University will allow the British Library Electronic Thesis Online Service (EThOS) and the National Library of Wales Theses Collection Wales service, to harvest the bibliographic metadata and make the work available under the declared terms and conditions of their service;

x.   If dispute arises between the author and supervisor(s) relating to withholding the thesis, the decision of the supervisor(s) is final.

Access Conditions:

	Please select one option from the list:	Option
1.	No restriction: immediate deposit of an open access electronic version of the thesis.	Yes
2.	Restriction of the electronic version of the thesis for the duration of a temporary embargo period (1- 5-year maximum).
3.	Release a redacted open access electronic version of the thesis. Please provide the original thesis for preservation and a second redacted version if selecting this option. You may specify a temporary embargo period.
4.	Permanent restriction of the electronic version of the thesis.This has been formally approved by the Faculty nominee.
	Insert embargo expiry date if applicable: dd/mm/yyyy.
	If you wish to place a restriction on access to your thesis please indicate the reason below.

Please select applicable option(s):	Yes/No
